

Rule 32. Effect of denial

When there is a denial of a formal statement of charges relating to the physical or mental condition of the respondent, by such denial the respondent must be deemed to have consented to a physical or mental examination by a qualified medical practitioner designated by the commission.